Nick Newlin Joins InterOcean to lead Plastics and Packaging Industry Team

January 2010 – InterOcean Advisors (IOA) is pleased to announce that Nick Newlin has joined the firm as a Director. Nick will lead IOA’s expanding emphasis on the plastics and packaging industry. His responsibilities include advising clients on mergers and acquisitions and capital raising assignments.

Prior to joining IOA, Nick spent nearly 10 years at Crowe Capital Markets, a middle market investment bank, where he was most recently Managing Director and Co-Head of Mergers & Acquisitions. Nick has advised companies in a broad range of industries, including plastics and packaging; business services; capital equipment; construction and engineering; consumer and retail; and industrial and manufacturing.

InterOcean Advisors LLC, based in Chicago, Illinois, is a boutique investment bank focused on providing mergers and acquisitions and capital raising advisory services to middle market manufacturing companies.

Securities are offered through 1st Worldwide Financial Partners, LLC.
